About the Junior Chamber of Commerce

Community development and service is at the heart of every Jaycee. We strive to be active in our community by supporting programs and projects which benefit our town, our families and our own lives.

Funds generated by our activities are annually donated to local charitable and civic organizations; thus, helping to expand and perpetuate community services and programs.

Chagrin Valley Jaycees typically meet monthly at various locations. Meetings focus on upcoming events and themes. Our main objective is to help our community at large. Towards this end, we also strive to have fun.

Other benefits of being a Jaycee includes the opportunity to expand friendship and to network. We offer a place to develop your personal skills and meet similar individuals with similar goals. The Jaycees are comprised of individuals local to the Chagrin Valley area.

The organization seeks membership supporting a range volunteer interest. Those interests vary from supporting only one or two activities annually all the way up to members interested in director level opportunities and high engagement. The organization is involved in several activities through out the year. These activities include everything from exclusive projects, hosting non-profit events, aiding other organizations with manpower support, and social gatherings. As a Jaycee volunteer, members determine their own individual level of activity.
